FIREY FLAMES.

A BIG BLAZE IN CHINA-TOWN—ONE BUILDING BURNED DOWN—A CHINAMAN SUFFOCATED TO DEATH—INQUEST.

On Saturday evening, at 7:30 o'clock, fire was seen in a two story building, corner of King and Keolu streets. It started in the upper story, the flames soon communicating with rapidity, illuminating the sky so that the reflection could be seen a long way off. Soon after the fire was discovered, an alarm was turned in, and the fire increasing a second alarm was rung. The department responded quickly, the Volunteer boys of Engine Company No. 2 getting on a steam fire from a hydrant at the corner of Maunakea and Hotel streets. No. 2 Engine was also quickly on the spot, and soon had two streams on, which did effective work. Engines No. 1 and No. 4 also lost no time in reaching the scene.

In the meantime the fire was gaining headway, and as all the building in the block where the fire commenced are of wood, it looked as if the whole block was doomed to destruction. However when the department got fairly to work it was seen that it would not take long to get the fire under control. About ten minutes past 8 o'clock this was accomplished, but the fire was not completely out until nearly 9 o'clock. The members of the fire department worked hard and it is to their efforts that the fire was so quickly got under control.

An immense number of people turned out to see the fire, and the scene in the vicinity was a lively one. The building at the corner was almost entirely destroyed, only the charred frame remaining. The upper story of the adjoining building on King street was completely burned. The building on Keolu street next to the burned one is somewhat damaged by fire. These two latter were owned by Ah Sing, cook on the steamer Kinau. He has insurance in the Sun Fire Office on the several buildings for $2,000. It is also stated that some of the buildings in rear which were only charred were insured, but owing to Ah Sing being away on the Kinau, nothing is definitely known. The one at the corner was rented by Ah Wong Kee and used as a fruit store. On the first floor were four rooms, one of which was occupied by an aged Chinaman, Lohiau. He was sick and perished in the fire, his charred body being found on a mat on the floor after the fire. A number of Chinese and Hawaiians rented the rooms on the second floor and some of them lost everything. The building on King street damaged in the upper story is insured in the Trans-Atlantic Office for $750 by Tuck Lung Chung, the owner.

So far the origin of the fire is unknown. Fire Marshal White has made a thorough investigation of the premises, and is fully of the opinion that the fire was started by a kerosene lamp, as immediately after the fire was discovered kerosene oil was seen dripping from the second story of the corner building by Deputy-Marshal Hopkins. A native and his wife have been held on suspicion. They had been living in one of the upstairs rooms where the fire started.

The cables of the Mutual Telephone Company which run on that side of the street were destroyed. Men were at work on Sunday making repairs. A number of thieves were around carrying off anything they could lay their hands on. Several arrests were made.

AN INQUEST.

After the fire an inquest was held before Deputy Marshal Hopkins one of the coroners for the island, upon the body of Lohiau, who perished in the flames. The following jury was sworn: H. L. Blanchard, Geo. Barker, G. Curtis, Joseph Clarke, Elvert Olsen and James Gregory. The following evidence was taken:

Kauaii Aiana (witness) stated: I was at the Chinese Theatre in our room building. My brother was attending to a baby, my husband was in the Theatre. A Chinaman came in and said fire, fire! I did not hear the alarm. I went out and looked and supposed the fire was at Maunakea corner. I ran up there and tried to get in where the body of my father was lying, but could not on account of the fire. I did not see my father at all. My brother followed me. My father was an old man. When I approached, the lane was one mass of flames. The body lay in our bedroom on a mat on the floor. My father does not smoke opium. He drinks very little. He has been sick the last two days. I do not know old my father is. My husband is Aina. My father was not so sick but he could walk. Saw him last about 5 o'clock, and my brother saw him at 6 o'clock.

Yee Moon sworn stated: I am steward of Engine Co. No. 5. Know Lohiau, he is an old man. Was at my room in the Engine House. Do not know the time I heard the alarm of fire. I pulled my hose cart out, then called the members to take the engine out. The hose was taken first. Do not know anything about the fire. I saw the fire about the middle of the building where the body was found. Noticed the fire up stairs midway. After I had pulled my engine out I went down to get Aina (C.), met her in her own room at the Chinese Theatre and she came with me. I did not see her father was dead. When we arrived at the place of the fire the police drove us off. I then got Mr. White to go to the place where the body was. There is a store at the corner of King and New streets, then comes the building where the body Lohiau was found. I do not know whether Lohiau uses opium or liquor. I was mixed up and knew nothing at the time.

Aina (C.) sworn stated: Lohiau, deceased was my father-in-law. I was married to his daughter about 5 years ago. Lohiau was about 88 years of age. I saw him about two days ago, do not know that he had enemies. He was very weak, if he walked had to use two sticks. He was very deaf. I live at Chinese Theatre.

Mahoe Lohiau sworn stated: I am a son of Lohiau, an fifteen years old. Saw my father last at 6 o'clock, he was the same as usual. He told me to get him some coffee which I did and fed him. He was lying on the floor with his head towards Ewa. My father was very weak; he is able at times to get up. His sickness is a cough, and he is very deaf.

The jury after deliberation returned a verdict that Lohiau came to his death through suffocation from smoke at the fire on King street on the night of January 26, 1889.
